Numb. 2170

MONDAY, OCTOBER 4. 1742.

Since our laſt arrived a Mail from Flanders.

Stockholm, Sept. 28.

ALL Things here receive daily a more cloudy Aſpect, and it is now very evident that this Diet will not ſeparate before a ſolid Peace is concluded, a thorough Enquiry made into the Conduct of the War, and a new Settlement takes place as to Domeſtick Affairs. Perhaps too the Succeſſion may be ſettled. There are at preſent three Parties; one for the Duke of Holſtein, who inſinuate that by raiſing him to the Throne they may regain a Part of their loſt Dominions; another which eſpouſes the Intereſt of a certain German Prince, powerfully allied, and who conſequently might be able to reſtore the Affairs of Sweden; the Third are a Sort of Independent Patriots, who do not ſeem to trouble themſelves much about the Succeſſion. The Generality of the People wiſh well to the Duke of Holſtein, and even ſuch as have ſhewn the greateſt Zeal for rendering this an Elective Kingdom, ſeem diſpoſed to make Choice of him, in hopes of recovering ſome of the Provinces which have been diſmembered from the Swediſh Monarchy by the laſt War and the preſent. It is generally believed that Count Lewenhaupt and General Sodenbrock are in this City, but remain concealed for Fear of the Populace; and we are the rather induced to believe this, becauſe a Court Martial has been appointed for their Trial, at the Head of which is Veldt-Marſhal Hamilton, and this Court is to ſit in a few Days. The Heats which reign among the People, put the Miniſtry under intolerable Difficulties; for as on the one hand, the offering Violence to theſe Generals would throw an indelible Blemiſh on the Government; ſo, on the other, the Care taken of their Perſons is made the Subject of many Miſconſtructions.

Vienna, Sept. 26. The Court is very ſenſible of the Pains taken by its Enemies to publiſh falſe Intelligence, in order to diſcredit our preſent Condition; but as Contradictions are inſeparable from Falſhood, it is hoped that while our Enemies complain on one Hand of our being haughty and intractable, their Relations will meet with no Belief, when they are ſtuffed on the other with ſuch Stories as ſeem to ſhew us in a weak and deſpicable State. The Army of Prince Charles ſince his Junction with Count Khevenhuller conſiſts of 51,000 Men, excluſive of the Forces under the General Nadaſti and Heiſreich which are at preſent in the Upper Palatinate, and conſiſt of 10,000 Men at leaſt. General Feſtititz is daily joined by Regular and Irregular Troops, and if the Fate of Bohemia be not ſpeedily put out of Doubt by a deciſive Action, he will very ſoon be in a Condition to renew the Siege of Prague. We are in no Pain about Affairs in Bavaria, where if General Seckendorff be at the Head of that which is called the Imperial Army, we have at the Head of ours Baron Berenclau, who was bred up under him, and ſerved as Adjutant-General when he commanded in Chief in Hungary in 1737. In point of Force, Muncih is now well fortified; he has already received conſiderable Succours from Tyrol, and the reſt are daily expected. The Queen our Sovereign and her Miniſters appear perfectly cool and ſerene, while the Ardour of the Troops and the Zeal of the People in general is inexpreſſible.

Leipzig, Oct. 4. There are Letters here which mention General Feſtuditz's having follow'd the French to Beraun, in order to ſave ſome Proviſions which the Auſtrians are ſaid to have left there: The latter have loſt, according to the Report of the French, conſiderable Quantities which they had at Konigſaal, as well as ſome Ammunition. By a Letter of the 28th paſt there is Advice, that the above-ſaid General has entirely raiſed the Blockade of Prague. The French have another Detachment at Leuthmaritz, and a ſmall one towards Zittau, and ſeem to intend to march quite to the Frontiers of Saxony, in order to ſecure their Magazines. The ſaid Letter adds, that on the next Day, the 29th, the Great Duke would march towards Maillebois, and give a general Battle, if he ſtood his Ground. That the Head Quarters of the Auſtrians were at Oberkoſchritſch, the Left Wing, commanded by Field Marſhal Kevenhuller, extended to Heylig Creutz, and their Right to Plan, and that the French were at Brammahoff, not above a Quarter of a German Mile diſtant; that there is a little Brook between them, and that the latter have a Wood behind them, where they are making ſome Works, to moleſt which, and to prevent any intended Retreat, Colonel Mentzel and Baron Trenck are ſent round with a Detachment, but there is as yet no News here of their Succeſs, or of any Battle. It is juſt now aſſured, that there has been a great Skirmiſh between ſome Huſſars and the French, among which were Part of their beſt Troops, and that the latter were ſhamefully routed, and driven to their Camp, where they were ſuſtain'd by Count Saxe; yet that the whole French Army was retreating towards Eger, where it will be Tomorrow.

Bruſſels, Oct. 6. The Duke de Noailles is gone to Rocroi, and is to viſit all the French Fortreſſes between the Sambre and the Maeze. Before he left Maubeuge, he made ſeveral new Diſpoſitions in the Fortifications, ordered ſome Houſes to be demoliſh'd without the Town, and all the Hedges and Trees to be cut down within Cannon-ſhot of the Works. Thirty Pieces of heavy Cannon are arrived at Maubeuge, which they have planted upon the Batteries, and they have brought near 200 Oxen and 600 Sheep into the Town, where they have now a ſtrong Garriſon. They have begun to palliſade the little Town of Avennes upon the Mehaigne, and to put their Batteries in Order there. At Dunkirk the Governor has hired Three of the largeſt Warehouſes in the Town, which are converted into Hoſpitals for their Sick.

The only true Specifick Tincture

For the TOOTH-ACH, and all Disorders and Defects of the TEETH and GUMS whatever, which has given such intire Satisfaction to the Nobility and Gentry for these Twenty Years past, by its vastly excelling all other Things, ever formerly invented or lately contrived for these Purposes;

SINCE one Drop of it gives infallible and instant Ease in the most tormenting Pain, which nothing else will, and not only takes it away in a Moment, but absolutely cures the TOOTH-ACH, so as certainly to prevent a Return.

At only once using it makes the foulest Teeth most beautifully white, assuredly fastens those that are loose, and infallibly preserves the Teeth from growing rotten, and those a little decay'd, from becoming worse; It perfectly cures the Scurvy in the Gums, causing them to grow up to the Teeth again to Admiration, and also occasions a Sweet Breath.

It is neither disagreeable to the Smell or Taste, but effectually preserves the Teeth and Gums from all Manner of Foulness, Corruption, and Putrefaction, keeps them sound, good, and in most beautiful Order, and may be depended upon to have the Character here given of it, literally, and in every Respect as Persons innumerable have experienc'd.

But these inimitable Qualities, and solely inherent Virtues by which it has justly gain'd such an universal and unparallel'd great character, have occasion'd, as usual in such cases, various and frequent Endeavours to mimick it, some under the same Name and in the very Words of this Advertisement, and others under other Names; be careful, therefore, to have the right which may be infallibly relied upon, and which is to be had only, by the Author's Appointment, of the Gentlewoman, at the Two Blue-Posts in Haydon-Yard, in the Minories, London, at 2 s. 6 d. a Bottle, with Directions.

Good Allowance to those who take Quantities for Exportation.

Angelick Snuff.

THE most Noble Composition in the World, instantly removing all Manner of Disorders of the Head and Brain, easing the most excruciating Pain in a Moment; taking away all Swimming or Giddiness, proceeding from Vapours, or any other Cause; also Drowsiness, Sleepiness, and all other Lethargick Effects; perfectly curing Deafness to Admiration, and all Humours or Soreness in the Eyes, wonderfully strengthning them when weak.

It certainly cures Catarrhs or Defluxions of Rheum, and remedies the most grievous Tooth-ach in an Instant; is excellently beneficial in Apoplectick Fits, and Falling Sickness, and assuredly prevents those Distempers; corroborates the Brain, comforts the Nerves, and revives the Spirits.

Its admirable Efficacy in all the above-mentioned Cases has been experienced above a thousand Times, and very justly causes it to be esteem'd the most beneficial Snuff in the World, being good for all Sorts of Persons: And as most of the abovesaid Disorders are sudden, and the Remedy by this noble Angelick Snuff as speedy, no Family ought to be without it, nor ever will when they have once used it.

It is to be had only of the Gentlewoman at the Sign of the Crown over against the Church in Coleman-street near Cheapside London, at One Shilling a Paper, with printed Directions at large.
